

Orange Level Quiz #15

so / too

Part A.

Directions: Complete the end of each sentence with "so" or "too" and the necessary helping verbs. Write the answers in your notebook.

Example: Mark has a new car. Jenny has a new car.

Mark has a new car, and so does Jenny. (or) Mark has a new car, and Jenny does too.

1. I like chocolate ice cream, and Pamela _____ .
2. You work as a chef, and _____ Steven.
3. We can go to to the beach, and _____ they.
4. This is a good book, and that _____ .
5. I'm ready, and _____ they.
6. Bob has lived here a long time, and _____ Joe.
7. The team felt the pain of defeat, and the fans _____ .
8. Our house is on this block, and _____ theirs.
9. That store went out of business, and the one next door _____ .
10. This phone is on sale, and those _____ .

Part B.

Directions: Combine two sentences into one sentence by using "so" or "too."

Example: (so) This was helpful. That was helpful.

(so) This was helpful, and so was that.

1. We're going out tonight. They're going out tonight.

(so) _____ .

2. He had a good time. His girlfriend had a good time.

(too) _____.

3. I was looking for a new job. Sara was looking for a new job.

(so) _____.

4. The pizza is inexpensive. The drinks are inexpensive.

(so) _____.

5. Jim's had enough to eat. Bill's had enough to eat.

(too) _____.

6. You saw what happened. I saw what happened.

(so) _____.

7. We can stay a little longer. They can stay a little longer.

(too) _____.

8. He will do it. She will do it.

(too) _____.

9. I'm satisfied with the agreement. They're satisfied with the agreement.

(so) _____.

10. Your house was repainted. Our house was repainted.

(so) _____.